

Article - Labor and Employment

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)

§4–301.

- (a) In this subtitle the following words have the meanings indicated.
- (b) “Injunctive relief” means:
 - (1) a permanent injunction;
 - (2) a temporary injunction; or
 - (3) a temporary restraining order.
- (c) “Labor dispute” includes any controversy, regardless of whether the disputants stand in the proximate relation of employee or employer, concerning:
 - (1) terms or conditions of employment;
 - (2) employment relations;
 - (3) the association or representation of persons in negotiating, setting, maintaining, or changing terms or conditions of employment; or
 - (4) any other controversy arising out of the respective interests of employee or employer.
- (d) “Person participating or interested in a labor dispute” means a person against whom relief is sought if the person:
 - (1) is engaged in the industry, craft, trade, or occupation in which the dispute occurs; or
 - (2) is an agent, member, or officer of an association of employees or employers engaged in the industry, craft, trade, or occupation in which the dispute occurs.

[\[Previous\]](#)[\[Next\]](#)